

SUNSHINE DRUMMING COMPANY

with Mike McElya

- Creative
- Reinvigorating
- Unforgettable

Hit your Highest Potential

Attend a drumming session with Mike McElya of the Sunshine Drumming Company and something extraordinary happens inside your head. From international conferences to private parties, the power Mike and his African drums unleash is a blast of pure human energy: creative, reinvigorating and unforgettable.

Mike's technique can turn a roomful of strangers into a cohesive group of friends and colleagues in the time it takes to drink a hot cup of coffee.

Effective and fluent in the workplace amongst executives and staff on every level, Mike also brings warmth, vibrancy and out-and-out FUN into the lives of children, their teachers and parents.

Since 1994, theatre director and percussionist Mike McElya has been winning a great reputation for his charismatic blend of instruction, inspiration, team-building and entertainment. Some clients include Lloyds TSB, SKY Television and the Pepsi Cola Co.

From beginners' drumming tutorials and workshops in small or large groups, to elaborate performances staged at festivals and public events around the UK, Mike uses this ancient vocabulary to create a powerful sense of unity.

Mike fully deserves his reputation as one of the most innovative professional rhythm workshop leaders in the business, while his wife Noelle is Events Coordinator at HQ and assists with workshops and bookings.
